

Vittoria tires winning La Vuelta (and much more)

#VittorialsVictory

What a great end of season for Vittoria! Riders on Vittoria tires made the difference like never before this year: Grand tours, track world records, mountainbike world cup... Whatever the discipline, Vittoria tires took it all recently!

#VittoriaCorsa is 2019 Vuelta a España winner with Primoz Roglic

Primoz Roglic (Jumbo-Visma) sealed his first grand tour victory after having led the race since stage 10. It was a great achievement for him and for his home country, as this is the first grand tour win for Slovenia. Roglic season started very well winning the UAE-Tour, Tirreno-Adriatico and Tour of Romandie before fading in the final stages of the Giro d'Italia and slipping from first to third place in the GC. With the red jersey, he now closes his season on a high!

#VittoriaCorsa is 2019 Tour of Britain winner with Mathieu Van der Poel

The 24-year-old Dutchman Mathieu Van der Poel (Corendon-Circus) secured the GC first place in a dramatic finish in the centre of Manchester. The 2019 world cyclo-cross champion, played it safe in the final stage by keeping Matteo Trentin (GC second place) in his sights, with a series of breaks hauled back in by teams seeking to secure their own success in a sprint finish.

#VittoriaMezcal is the 2019 XC U23 World Cup winner with Filippo Colombo

Filippo Colombo (BMC MTB Racing Team) finished the season on a high, taking the win in Snowshoe, USA and second place in the World Cup overall classification. Filippo's riding was brilliant throughout all the season, as he reached the victory also in the World Cup stages of Albstadt and Lenzerheide. Next year he will fight for the title in the Elite category, always riding Vittoria!
